ESKA European Championship 2018

Kata Rules: ESKA Competition Rules with certain adjustments for U10 – U16B:

Individual competitions:

In the preliminary rounds of the contest (more than 8 competitors), the main referee announces the kata (see list of katas) and the two competitors have to perform kata at the same time (standing next to each other). The referees then use the flags to announce the winner.

Rounds with 8 competitors (and fewer): Each competitor chooses a kata from the list of katas and the referees use points to assess the performance. The four competitors with the highest score then reach the final round of the contest. In the finale, competitors can perform a kata of their choice.

List of Katas:

U 10, U 12, U 14, U 16 B, Female B und Male B :
more than 8 competitors: Taikyoku 1, Heian 1–3

8 competitors and fewer – referees assess performance using points;
athletes can choose their kata: Taikyoku 1, Heian 1–5

Finale (4 competitors): competitors can perform a Shotokan kata of their choice– however, it mustn't be the kata which was last performed!

YOUTH, CADET, JUNIOR, SENIOR and Kata Individual +35:

16 competitors and more: Heian 2 – 5,
16 to 8 competitors: Jion, Kanku Dai, Bassai Dai, Enpi

8 competitors and fewer – referees use points to assess performance:
Jion, Kanku Dai, Bassai Dai, Enpi, Hangetsu

Finale (4 competitors): competitors can perform a Shotokan kata of their choice– however, it mustn't be the kata which was last performed!

Team competitions:

Referees use points to assess the performance of each team. If there are more than 4 teams, there will be preliminary rounds.
In the final round (4 teams), teams must perform a different kata than in the preliminary round. No Bunkai.

rules Kumite: ESKA –Competition Rules (Shobu Ippon)
